Rimrock Humane Society's 5th Annual Rummage Sale a Huge Success

Roundup, MT, 19 June 2006 – The doors of the Roundup Community Center opened at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday evening, June 15th for the Humane Society's first ever "Early Bird Sale". The gymnasium where this event is held every year was burgeoning with donated items for the eager buyer who didn't mind paying the $5.00 admission fee for the privilege of being first through the door.

"The idea of the Early Bird Sale came to us from a humane society in Wyoming", Sandy Church, President of the Humane Society stated. "We thought it was a great idea and it must be the community agreed as we made $300 on admissions plus sold close to $1,700 worth of merchandise that evening".

It was then, business as usual, with the sale running Friday and Saturday from 9:00 until 5:00 both days. Attendance was strong and steady throughout the sale. "Donations of smaller type items were down this year", Church said "but we had a lot of awesome furniture, bedding and such which easily made up for the lack of smaller items."

After the doors were shut on Saturday evening, a whopping $5,200 was raised and will be applied toward their building fund. They also sold over $900 worth of raffle tickets for the brand new Polaris 4 wheeler they are raffling off and $132 went toward the raffle of a beautiful quilt donated by Dolly Boyd.

Volunteers worked tirelessly from Sunday the 11th through the end of the sale; sorting, organizing and pricing the items. "This is hard earned money", Church stated. "It is not easy putting on a function of this magnitude. None of this would be possible without the cooperation of the community and our many dedicated volunteers. To all of you, the Rimrock Humane Society thanks you from the bottom of our hearts!"
